- Manage one or more designated camp blocks and ensure effective implementation of Site Management Support (SMS) activities, promoting community-led interventions with active engagement of vulnerable groups.
- Coordinate with relevant camp actors to promptly address service-related gaps and challenges.
- Support the implementation of community-led initiatives, including pond-fencing activities to mitigate child-drowning risks and enhance camp safety.
- Facilitate community consultation meetings such as Focus Group Discussions (FGDs), Key Informant Interviews (KIIs), and courtyard sessions to ensure meaningful community participation and feedback integration.

Capacity Building:

- Strengthen the capacity of Site Management Support (SMS) Volunteers and community members on Emergency Preparedness and Response (EPR) initiatives.
- Organize orientations and training on simulation exercises, early warning systems, and emergency damage assessment reporting.
- Support relevant DRR actors in planning and delivering capacity-building training and preparedness initiatives.
- Ensure effective volunteer management by defining roles, responsibilities, and accountability mechanisms.
- Conduct community mobilization activities to raise awareness on man-made and natural hazards and promote preparedness actions.

Accountability & Reporting and Documentation:

- Ensure the safety of team members and promote a safe working environment by advocating for and enforcing safeguarding policies and standards.
- Follow safeguarding reporting procedures for any reportable incidents and encourage team members to report concerns in line with organizational protocols.
- Update, maintain, and share the Emergency Preparedness and Response (EPR) database monthly.
- Maintain and regularly update the SMS Volunteers databases, including preparing monthly work plans and following up on periodic reporting related to DRR and EPR materials.
- Prepare and update daily, monthly, quarterly, annual, and ad hoc reports, including risk assessments, as required.
- Implement programme activities in line with the approved personal work plan and organizational priorities.
- Organize and support community workshops, focus group discussions, meetings, and other community mobilization activities.
- Ensure all programme activities are implemented in accordance with the project Communications Strategy, applying community mobilization for empowerment methodologies and participatory tools.
- Submits required financial documentation, when necessary, in compliance with the organization's financial policies and procedures.
- Ensure all assigned duties are completed with a high standard of quality and within agreed timelines.
